

INVITATION

48th International BSA Rally 2011 at the LORELEY, 56346 St. Goarshausen, Germany 16th July – 23th July 2011

The Loreley cliff is one of the most famous locations in Germany, along the river Rhine close to Frankfurt. The Rally site is right on top of the Loreley mountain overlooking the beautiful Rhine valley.

With its beautiful landscapes the location is ideal for motorcycle touring with lots of beautiful roads and places to see.

The proposed events for the Rally are as follows:

Saturday 16th Arrivals and Booking in. Evening Bar

Sunday 17th Official Opening, Evening Bar and Live Music

Monday 18th Line up at Niederwalddenkmal www.niederwalddenkmal.com visit the famous wine village www.ruedesheim.de afternoon wine walk with wine tasting evening Bar open

Tuesday 19th River Rhine ship tour. Evening Bar open

Wednesday 20th BBQ, Lucas night run. Evening Bar open and Live Music

Thursday 21st silly games, dinner and dance

Friday 22nd Auto jumble. Evening Bar open

Saturday 23rd Departure. See you next year.

The rally site www.loreley-herberge.de has a big sports field to camp. BSA bikes can park on the field, cars must park outside. Space for mobile homes available. Just 4 log cabins, each divided in 2 half with very basic bunk beds. The main building has 27 rooms with total 131 basic modern bunk beds, facilities on the corridor.

2 hotels close to the Rally site you must book yourself.

Every morning you can have a very extensive breakfast in the modernised breakfast room with 100 seats. More space will be available at the large marquee outside.

More information about the beautiful landscapes and villages www.loreley-rhein.de

This invitation, more information and future booking forms can be downloaded at www.bsaoc-ir2011.de

For further questions please contact [Rainer.Winkler\[at\]javl.com](mailto:Rainer.Winkler[at]javl.com)